

Date: March 4th 2016

Venue: Institute for Anatomy, University of Leipzig

Fee: 250,- €

Chairs and staff: T. Treutler, J. Beige, R. Wendt, P. Sivenov

Language: German. English individually if more than 2 non-German speaking participants will take part.

Dear Colleagues,

you are invited to the 10th Leipzig renal biopsy course under the umbrella of ERA-EDTA and conducted by the German Renal Academy. This particular course is for our knowledge the only one, which provides training opportunities for kidney biopsies on a biological environment in human corpses with particular preparation techniques. We consider the skill to conduct a efficient and safe biopsy as a core technique for every clinical nephrologists.

Program:

10.15 - 10.30 am	Introduction
10.30 - 11.00 am	Urine cytometrical investigations
11.00 - 11.45 am	Endovascular biopsy
11.45 - 12.30 am	Practical procedures, indications and complications
12.30 - 13.15 pm	Noon break Splitting in group A (only German-speaking) and Group B (with English-speaking)
01.15 – 2.00 pm	A: Handling of percutaneous equipment and ultrasound B: Practical Urin – microscopy
02.00 - 3.15 pm	A: Biopsy shots in corpses B: Case discussion Polyangiitis
03.15 - 03.35 pm	Coffee break and group switch
03.35 - 04.15 pm	B: Handling of percutaneous equipment and ultrasound A: Practical Urin – microscopy
04.15 - 05.30 pm	B: Biopsy shots in corpses A: Case discussion Polyangiitis
06.00 pm	Meeting adjurn, feedback, »meet the expert«